HEATHER BELLS - Polka. Jacob Kunkel, 75

One of the finest solo compositions known. Annual sale exceeds 20,000 copies. Also published as a duet.

GERMANS' TRIUMPHAL MARCH—

Edition de Concert. Jacob Kunkel, 60

Very brilliant and effective; by far the most popular march published. Annual sale of over 25,000 copies.

An effective arrangement of the above for less skilled performers is published as well; also a fine Duet arrangement.

OLD FOLKS AT HOME—

Concert Variations. Charles Kunkel, 1.00

An unusually effective fantasia on this favorite melody of Foster's. No happier piece for private or public performance; every variation a gem.

OLD FOLKS AT HOME.

Pompieresse de Concert

Musical score for 'The Rose Tree'. The score is written for a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is in the treble clef, featuring a series of eighth notes and quarter notes, often beamed together. The bass clef part consists of a simple accompaniment of quarter and eighth notes. The piece is marked 'Ped.' (Pedal) at the beginning and end of the first section. The score is numbered 8 at the top left.

Handwritten musical score for "L'Espresso" by Debussy. The score is for piano and includes a treble and bass staff. The treble staff features a complex, arpeggiated melody with many beamed sixteenth notes, often grouped under slurs. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes. The piece is marked "ff pesante." and "Ped." (pedal). The page number "315 - 9" is visible at the bottom center.

What Some of the Great Pianists and Pedagogues of the World Say.

- HANS VON BUELOW: "No pianist can afford to be without it."
ANTON RUBINSTEIN: "Will do more for fine piano playing than any work published in a decade."
J. I. PADEREWSKI: "A truly great work; worth its weight in gold."
JULIA RIVE-MNC: "Through your Pedal Method we will have more good pianists in the future. A wonderful exposition of the hidden secrets, making piano playing truly great."

A Few of the Many Letters Received by Charles Kunkel in Behalf of His Late Work.

XAVIER SCHARWENKA, the world-renowned Pianist, Composer and Director of the Scharwenka Conservatory of Music New York.

MR. CHARLES KUNKEL,
New Haven, Conn. Accept my sincerest thanks for the copy of your truly magnificent Piano Pedal. I have perused and studied the same with great interest, and with the same universal recognition and approval.

With the highest esteem,
XAVIER SCHARWENKA.
Philadelphia.

MR. CHARLES KUNKEL,
Dear Sir—I have carefully read through your Piano Pedal Method, and must compliment you on the very efficient way in which you treat this delicate question, the secret-point of so many fine—the Pedal. Your method is profound and yet simple and lucid enough to be understood by the student even without the aid of a teacher. Moreover, it does not address itself to the pupils of any particular grade of development, it will be beneficial to the pupils of all grades, even the most advanced ones, whose pedaling needs cultivation. That you fill a really long-felt want and cultivate a territory entirely neglected by pedagogic writers goes without saying. I shall use it as a complement to other studies with my pupils, and earnestly recommend it to my brother teachers.

Wishing you all success, I am, very truly yours,
CONSTANTINE STERNBERG.

EMIL LIEBLING, the distinguished Pianist and Composer, of Chicago.

MR. CHARLES KUNKEL, St. Louis, Mo.
December 14, 1903.
My Dear Mr. Kunkel:—Your "Piano Pedal Method" is so comprehensive, and eminently practical, that you could really well afford to dispense with any other recommendation of the work. The altitudes hitherto made to cover that most important and currently neglected field, have been so diffuse as to involve and merit failure.

In your extremely realistic on the subject, accomplished as it is by the most practical illustrations, I find only one reservation in regard to the proper mode of the various positions of the foot, which render the work equally interesting to the teacher and valuable to the pupil.

Considerable credit on your student success in this work, and will most earnestly recommend your method to teachers and pupils, as the only work on the subject which, in my opinion, is absolutely perfect.

Sincerely yours,
EMIL LIEBLING.

I. D. FOULON, the renowned Musical Critic.

December 15, 1903.
My Dear Mr. Kunkel:—You have done a great work in giving to both teachers and pupils the first practical, measured, and complete exposition of the use of the Piano Pedal ever attempted, and in doing it in such a manner as to make your book one of its own profession. By the publication of your Piano Pedal, you have not only enabled your debt to your profession, but you have placed it under great and lasting obligation to yourself. The improvement which I have marked in the playing of persons who had read your Piano Pedal for a couple of months has astonished as well as gratified me, and after the practical demonstration of its comparative value which I have had, I shall not therefore be able to consider any piano course in which it shall not figure as complete or satisfactory. As ever, your friend,
I. D. FOULON.

J. H. HAHN, the eminent Musician, Critic and Director of the Detroit Conservatory of Music.

December 23, 1903.
My Dear Mr. Kunkel:—Your book of Piano Pedal studies embodies and presents in a most concise and tangible form, recognized principles for the proper use of the Pedal as applied to modern pianoforte playing. It will surely prove a summary for good in many a method, and should certainly be in the hands of every aspiring teacher, student and amateur.

With best wishes, I am, cordially yours,
J. H. HAHN.

E. R. KROEGER, the distinguished Composer, Musician and Musical Director of Forest Park University.

December 26, 1903.
My Dear Mr. Kunkel:—It has been but seldom in my experience that I have welcomed the appearance of a new didactic work treating of the pianoforte with as much measure as I have welcomed your Piano Pedal. I have felt for a long time that such a work was really essential to the instruction of pianoforte playing in his professional duties, but none of the candidates indicated that it was in existence. Consequently, in my capacity as a teacher I have had to impart a great instruction as possible concerning the use of the Pedal, and rely upon the pupil's ear and feeling for correct harmony and clear phrasing to supply the many other conditions of pianoforte play as properly indicated. Indeed, if the pupil were to follow the majority of pedal indications in standard editions, confusion would result. The state of correctly reading as being a work as a Sonata, for instance, is so great for the teacher, that in your Piano Pedal for a pupil's lesson he can be made aware of this time, and your Piano Pedal revolutionizes all that. If a pupil studies it carefully, he will surely be able to play with a certain ease and grace, and in the playing of the piano upon the pianoforte in a manner only heard, namely, in the playing of recollections of the services you have rendered pianoforte playing in this work, I believe me,
Yours very truly,
ERNEST R. KROEGER.
